General Meeting for IBDC
Seaside Candy
150 Palm Ave, Imperial Beach, CA 91932

Meeting started at 6:13pm. Matthew moved that we accept the agenda. It was approved. Yvonne moved that minutes be accepted. They were accepted. Our invited speaker portion of the agenda began with Matthew who told us about himself. He is a candidate in the new fourth district in Imperial Beach. Raphael Castellanos spoke about his candidacy for supervisor district one. Canvassing for him will be on November 30, 2019. Cheryl Quinones is running for re-election on the South Bay Union School District Board of Trustees area 3. Delfina Gonzalez is running for city council for Chula Vista. Rick Bates who is running for district 78 central committee. Ramon Espinal, who is running for district 78 central committee, gave a report about the upcoming convention. He reminded the club there are six slots available for district 78 central committee, and he extended an invitation for someone in our club to consider running. Our final speaker, Cynara Velazquez Kidwell, who is running for district 78 central committee, introduced herself to the club. Ed shared what was happening in Imperial Beach both locally and nationally. He let us know that our budget is doing well.

We honored our veterans today and let those veterans who were present know we would be thinking about them as well as all veterans on Monday November 11, 2019. Josie announced activities in Imperial Beach for our veterans. Jane reminded us about the GoTeam training on November 13, 2019 at the Imperial Beach library 6:30 pm, and Nick Zinter emphasized the GoTeam functions.

Ramon let us know about our two open positions Vice President and Membership. He asked that if anyone was interested to please let Anna know.

Our last meeting will be December 13, 2019 and it will also be our Holiday party. We do the brief business of reinstated officers and filling vacant positions at the beginning of the festivities.
